“Grandma Pat” Rosenberg

God is our refuge and strength,
an ever-present help in trouble.

Pat's confirmation verse, Psalm 46:1:

Patricia Bronson Rosenberg, lovingly known as Grandma Pat to the children of Trinity Lutheran School, passed away this Monday, October 26th to be with Our Heavenly Father, and reunited with her beloved husband, Roger.

Grandma Pat devoted herself to grade-school children for 30 years, first at St. John's Lutheran School and then at Trinity. She nurtured our children's spiritual well-being, tutored and helped them, and loved them dearly. She was always willing to assist with a sparkle in her eyes and a skip in her step!

Our students loved Grandma Pat as did her extended Family here at Trinity. She has touched many hearts through her generous spirit, and devotion to our church & school. She will surely be missed. Her greatest legacy is in sharing the love of Christ with our children - pointing them toward their own salvation. What an amazing gift to have shared. We give thanks to God for the great blessing of our dear Grandma Pat!
